

Unity of Inner Peace Newsletter for Dec. 2013

Dear Ones,

What is your gift? What is it that you create from deep within you and offer to the world? For some it may be a sense of stability; for some it may be a sense of humor; for others a sense of exploration and daring that inspires; for some it is communicating the feeling that all are important and loved. These gifts and others may be expressed in a myriad of ways. Do you paint, throw pots, write plays, make people laugh, move others to tears through your words, your warm embrace, your sense of acceptance? Are you the one who is just there when needed? Whatever it is that makes you feel alive, deeply and vibrantly alive, is your gift to share.

This month we will focus on these gifts of the Spirit, gifts that come from "the spiritual nucleus within each person." (Charles Fillmore) Won't you join us as we marvel together?

Lovingly,
Judy McGowan

There is a special vibration in the air at this time of year. Don't you feel it? It beckons to the child in us, that pure in heart part of us. It comes, it makes us want to dance and sing, laugh with delight. It cradles us with joy, then, as mysteriously as it appeared, it seems to dissipate as the last ornament is removed from the tree, and the colored lights are put away. So while it is here, let's do something together. Let's grab it, and store it in our hearts and minds, so we can draw on it at any time, in any place. Won't life be wonderful?!

Merry Christmas from your Board:
Judy, Dave, Militza, Richard and Bill
