Announcements:

It has been requested that we have some group/choral music as part of our Christmas service on Dec. 21st. The more singers we have participating, the more interesting the choices of music will be. The choices will be from music we have performed in the past, so there will be a base of singers who already know the music, thus making it easier for newcomers. If you are interested, it is important to let Judy McGowan know as soon as possible. The small group has already had one rehearsal but we welcome more participation! Remember, you don't have to have a solo voice to participate. Also, any instrumentalists or solo singers are welcome.

Just a reminder that our services run more smoothly if people have signed up ahead of time to be service leader, Daily Word and meditation leader, or music presenter. The sign up sheet is on a clip board at the information table each Sunday morning. We appreciate you mentally reviewing your personal schedule ahead of time so that you can commit to what is most convenient to you. We love the variety of leadership, and we welcome beginners. :)

A few people have mentioned that they miss receiving the mailed copy of the newsletter. Some of you might find it easier to print out a copy each month and put it in somewhere for easy reference- like on your refrigerator.

A reminder about the weekly Bishop Spong e-newsletter. If you are no longer receiving it but wish to, you must notify Judy to that effect. Only people who request will receive it.
