

UNITY OF INNER PEACE NEWSLETTER FOR OCTOBER, 2019

Dear Friends in Unity,

In the Unity Church it is traditional to sing or pray certain prayers. We all recognize The Lord's Prayer and the Prayer of Protection, but a number of years ago, I was introduced to a new prayer by Unity Minister Debbie Tyson. It is called the Grace Prayer. There is a parallel between this prayer and that which the Bible tells us Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane and on the cross. At any rate, for many years I had a copy of this displayed on my bedroom wall, and prayed it over and over. Then we moved, and it, like many other treasures was stored in a closet in our new home. Well, now once again we are downsizing, clearing and cleaning out, and there before me has appeared The Grace Prayer I treasured so long ago. With your permission, I will share it with you now just in case it speaks to you as it did to me.

The Grace Prayer

For Thee I thirst. Into Thy hands I commit my Spirit - my soul, my body, my life, this problem, all unforgiven states.

Thy will is my will. Heal me at depth. Reveal that which needs to be revealed. Heal that which needs to be healed so I can glorify you, God, and live in the fullness of grace.

It is finished.

Like anything else, it would seem, if you desire a deeper explanation, Google it. I did, and found that the words "heal" and "healed" have been changed to "transform" and "transformed."

Love and blessings,

Judy

The following is the October Sunday Schedule as submitted to Marquette Monthly by Board Member Lee Ossenheimer. Thank you, Lee.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We would like to extend a big thank you for an outstanding job done by Ann Russ in creating her first Celebration of Life ceremony as our Unity of Inner Peace Celebrant. The service held at the Women's Clubhouse on August 31st had a vibrant beauty to it that left all present feeling even closer to our dear friend Dorit Stilling than ever before. Thank you also to Ann's husband Steve Schmunk for helping with technology and sharing his own personal spiritual experience with Dorit.

Another person among us has received a great honor in her field of work. According to The Mining Journal "At the International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociations's 36th Annual Conference in New York City, Fran S. Waters was awarded the Cornelia B. Wilbur Award for outstanding clinical contributions to the treatment of dissociative disorders. Waters, author of Healing the Fractured Child: Diagnosis and Treatment of Youth with Dissociation maintains a private practice in Marquette." Congratulations, Fran. It is an honor to have you among us.

As immigration is such a critical issue in our present day culture, Messiah Lutheran Church would like to invite the Marquette community to experience along with them a presentation by Dr. Michael Broadway. Title: "Immigration: Past, Present, and Future: A Conversation about the Future of Immigration in the United States of America." When? Wednesday, Oct. 2nd at 6:30 PM. Where? The Atrium of Messiah Lutheran Church. We thank Messiah Lutheran for the opportunity to expand our consciousness' on this subject.
