

UNITY OF INNER PEACE NEWSLETTER FOR NOVEMBER, 2019

Dear Unity Friends,

So much important news this month that I thought I would start with that.

First: Our Unity of Inner Peace founding minister, Ruth Singer, has recently and unexpectedly made her transition. Barb Dupras, one of the group's original members has agreed to do a Sunday service memorializing Ruth on Sunday, December 15th. For those of you who wish to honor Ruth and her legacy, we suggest you mark your calendar now and join us on that day.

Second: The original name for our group was Unity Church of Inner Peace, but when our minister retired and we became lay-led, we dropped the "church" and became just Unity of Inner Peace. For the past year the Board has been looking for what we regard as a more updated and appropriate name, and recently settled on Unity Spiritual Community of Marquette. This name change has required legal changes which the Board members have been facilitating. However, according to Steve Schmunk, our webmaster, people can now enter our website in three ways: unityofinnerpeace.org unityspiritualcommunityofmarquette.org unityofmarquette.org. We intend to have a sign with our new name on it, which the Women's Club has given us permission to display on Sunday mornings.

Third: There has been a change in officers on the Board. Due to Dan Michelsen's overwhelming work hours, and Steve Schmunk's newly retired status, a switch in roles seemed like the most obvious and wise thing to do. So, Steve is now the President and Dan the Vice President. We still have all their brains and talent, just being put to use in more currently appropriate ways.

Fourth: Just a reminder that you are loved, special and important. There is not another just like you, so we are always thrilled to see you walk in the door on Sunday mornings.

Blessings,

Judy
